TIME STAMP

Instant action—no setting or adjusting
Provides exact time information as to . . .

WHEN IT ARRIVED . . .

Incoming mail, bills, orders, telephone messages, instructions, and other communications stamped with the time as well as the date upon their arrival at your office records their chronology. The speed with which distribution takes place can be checked, and the time lapse before attention is given them can be proved.

HOW LONG IT TOOK . . .

Stamp orders, instructions, job tickets, requests and other business forms with a Dorson—at the time they are written, at each step in their execution, and at their completion, to maintain definite schedules, place the responsibility for delays where it belongs, prove the completion date and hour, and check costs.

WHEN IT LEFT . . .

Proving the time at which a delivery was made, an order filled, a requisition dispatched, or similar communications left your office or a department is simple when they are stamped plainly with the date and time by a Dorson Time Stamp. Here again, the responsibility for delays and wasted time can easily be proved.
